Our annual Autumn Fair is fast approaching: please make a note Saturday 1st November in your diaries! To date we have 30 stalls, with space for a further two, and as always, there will be a wide variety of crafts on sale. Carol will be looking for volunteers to help. We will also require cakes to sell. Please remember that they must be accompanied by a list of ALL ingredients, to comply with health and safety regulations. Bee will be looking for items for her White Elephant stall. John Gibbons will be running a tombola again. Donations of bottles or confectionary will be gratefully received. Please contact Carol if you can help in any way and remember to invite all your friends and neighbours to come along to support us on the day. Let's make this year's Craft Fair the best yet—We hope to see you there.
